

The CGH-BRHS Library manages and curates the history collections of Central Gippsland Health and Bairnsdale Regional Health Service.

ARCHIVE

Items in the CGH-BRHS Archive are owned by the respective service (Central Gippsland Health or Bairnsdale Regional Health Service) and are subject to copyright.

Reproduction and/or use of images and text requires permission and an acknowledgment of source.

In 2026, an inventory of the collections is being undertaken with images, descriptions and location being added to Dspace software.
